

SyberFaceID-Gate Application:-

Sybernautix announces the release of its new product "SyberFaceID-Gate" aimed at providing the best solution in security and access control applications. This new product helps its users in many ways such as easy deployment, customizable modules and user friendly and can be used by security staff at places like shopping malls, airports, train stations, offices etc.

SyberFaceID-Gate automatically scans the incoming video streams detects multiple faces and checks if the found faces match list of persons enrolled, in case of a match, operators are notified - all in real time. It is a highly secured and reliable video monitoring system, which is suitable for the high traffic circulation because the entire process takes few seconds without any human interruption by flexibly integrated into for easy identification.

Features:-

- This application consists of a centralized server and a number of clients configured to the network.
- There is an interface running at the server which acts as the mediator between the server and the client to send the alerts.
- Large Database in the server to store the information about the individuals.
- A separate Client and Server software to send requests for alerts in the former and to enroll the people at the server in the latter software.
- At the venue which consists of number of Entrance and Exit Gates, cameras are fixed to capture the video of people entering and exiting.
- The person who is intended to know about the people, who have passed through a particular gate, gets information in the form of alerts.
- Video streams in the real time, image files can be used as source of information to get the alerts.

Versatility and ease of use make SyberFaceID-Gate the ideal video search solution at an assortment of venues including major events, amusement parks, airports, train stations, convention centers, shopping malls, casinos and front gate operations.